My Mission:

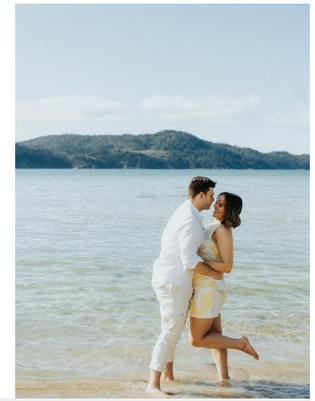

To create & capture authentic, relaxed, unique & positively memorable moments of your love story.

Hi I'm G,

A hopeless romantic, fantasy novel reader, adventure film watcher & goofy dancer. My promise to you, is to ensure I create a comfortable space for you to express yourselves & your love. I will take time to conceptualise interesting settings to really bring your love story to life. What I ask of you, is to be open to the adventure and trust the process. To communicate your feelings and to let me share in the moments.
