

DALMORE FARM

WEDDINGS

Dalmore Farm is a historic estate located in the Blackwood Valley, approximately 17 kilometres outside of Bridgetown.

Set in a private valley on 250 acres, this working farm is surrounded by rolling hills and beautiful tall trees. There is a wide stream that meanders through the heart of the property, and old oak trees provide shade and character around the homestead.

Dating back to 1873, Dalmore boasts exceptionally beautiful locations and period features. The estate hosts no more than 15 weddings each year, so every Dalmore wedding is an event to be remembered- unique and tailored exclusively to the couple and their guests.

The Ceremony

There are a number of exceptionally beautiful locations at Dalmore for ceremonies. From the sweeping vistas of the back paddock to the flowery canopy of the pear orchard, to beneath the branches of our 150-year-old Cork Oak, the choice is exclusively yours.

The Reception

Our Shearing Shed has been converted into an exceptionally beautiful reception space. Restored to capture the character of Australia's rural past, The Shed blends modern convenience with antiquated charm.

The only venue of its kind in the SW, The Shed offers the perfect memorable space for your wedding reception.

The Lounge and Bar

Set inside the Shed, this space provides a quiet place for guests to relax and enjoy a chat or a quieter moment. The bar has both indoor and outdoor ordering areas, making it easy to accommodate guests who wish to remain outside on the patio.

Our Outdoor Space

Overlooking the historic Workman's Cottage, Dalmore's patio is the perfect place for guests to enjoy pre-reception drinks and canapés while soaking up the beautiful country views.
