

Creating Unforgettable Ceremonies
with Heart and Style

ABOUT MICHAEL

Hi there! I'm Michael Welsh, and I'd be thrilled to be your Celebrant

As a celebrant, I am dedicated to honouring and celebrating the rich diversity of cultures, traditions, and beliefs that give meaning to each unique ceremony. My goal is to create an inclusive and respectful environment where every client feels seen, heard, and valued.

By embracing the diversity of our community, I strive to ensure that each ceremony reflects the unique identities and cultural backgrounds of those I serve. Together, we will craft moments that resonate deeply, honouring both personal stories and heritage with sensitivity and joy.
