

Happy Words from Lovebirds

From our very first meeting, Michelle made us feel completely at ease. She took the time to truly get to know us and created a ceremony that felt personal and so 'us'. All our guests commented on how beautiful, joyful and meaningful the ceremony was. We couldn't have imagined a better celebrant.

RACHEL & BRENDON

Michelle is an absolute dream to work with, She is an outstanding celebrant, and brought confidence and humour to our ceremony, with perfect delivery. We couldn't have imagined it without her.

KAREN & KRZYS

We were so lucky to have Michelle as the celebrant. She was absolutely wonderful from start to finish. Her warmth, professionalism and genuine way with people made everyone feel comfortable straight away. She had guests smiling and laughing throughout the ceremony, while still keeping everything beautifully organised and meaningful. I would highly recommend Michelle.

EMMA & ROB

Now living in the Yarra Valley, Michelle brings her on-camera ease and people-first approach to her work as a marriage celebrant, creating ceremonies that feel relaxed, engaging, and completely you, with plenty of smiles along the way. She combines script writing expertise with years of professional experience and just the right amount of sparkle to make your ceremony truly special.

Why choose Michelle

With 20 years of broadcast experience, Michelle knows how to write scripts that connect and deliver ceremonies that match the tone of your wedding perfectly. She writes every ceremony from scratch, no templates, just your unique love story. She knows how to read a room and deliver your nuptials with confidence and warmth. Michelle handles all the legal paperwork and works closely with couples to craft something that feels authentically them. Because your love deserves a ceremony that's as special as you are.

Michelle Louise
MARRIAGE CELEBRANT

Meet Michelle Louise

Michelle is an authorised marriage celebrant, natural storyteller and professional public speaker. After years working as an actress and TV presenter in the UK under her professional name 'Michelle Orpe', she knows how to speak with confidence, warmth, and just the right touch of humour. She moved to the Aussie countryside to raise her children and now enjoys marrying people across Australia. Public speaking isn't just something she does, it's something she genuinely loves.
