Welcome

Moons Lane Flowers is all about creating a sublime floral experience for you, our client. Nat, our floral designer will take your vision and deliver a display of flowers that provoke emotion and drama for your event.

We are located in Brookfield, and also operate an organic flower growing business, along side our design studio. This allows us to provide you, our client with high quality organic flowers when possible, subject to what is flowering at the time of your event.

Our approach to floral design is sustainable, economical and whimsical. We want you to remember your flowers in years to come.
