Wedding Ceremonies and Special Events

The soulful, sweet vocal stylings of Susannah paired with Rohan's innate versatility on guitar brings you this enchanting husband and wife duo Under the Willow. Providing their unique relaxed acoustic interpretation on any requested song, they will ensure that the music at your wedding ceremony is the perfect reflection and celebration of your special day. Under the Willow can happily expand to a four piece band to cater for receptions and parties.

Husband and wife duo Susannah and Rohan have bachelor degrees in music and have been performing together at weddings and events for the last ten years. Under the Willow have extensive experience liaising with couples to plan the perfect selection of music; demonstrating an extremely high standard of musicianship, versatility and professionalism.

Under the Willow have a wide range of jazz/pop/ indie/ folk music repertoire to choose from, or simply make a request! No matter what the backdrop or the repertoire; music provided by Under the Willow will enchant and delight you as you celebrate your love together with your loved ones. Additionally, Under the Willow may be hired to perform during pre-dinner drinks/ canapes, providing a beautiful backdrop while your guests mingle and relax.
