Our Story

2016 was the year Irene and I tied the knot. Our wedding day is and always will be the highlight of my life. Every now and then it hits me and I think "OMG! She said yes!" Then I'm smiling for the rest of the day. I know exactly how couples feel and what they go through.

Organising our wedding gave me a powerful hands-on insight into all the problems and pain points involved. Being in the industry for over 13 years I developed a strong network of vendors in the wedding industry.

Collaborating with all of them made the organisation of our wedding smooth and stress-free.

That's when I truly realised my passion and decided that I want to help couples around Australia experience a beautifully seamless wedding.

That's where it all began!
We like to call it...
