& ALL THINGS LOVE

MEET GRACE

Hello, I'm Grace! Observing the joys of love are one of my favourite things & learning how I can tell each couple's love story through my lens is something that truly inspires me

I love seeing the beauty of true love shine through, without the need for too much work or fussy posing - it's the genuine connection you have that is so poignant. Of course, I will help to portray it with utmost elegance & artistry to really make your images one of a kind, as individual as you both are

My photography vision is:

- to celebrate the beauty of human connection
- to portray precious moments with truth, elegance, authenticity & respect
- to create pieces of art that will have a special meaning to my clients that they will proudly display & share with the world
- and to be your personal storyteller that helps to visually translate your special day into timeless images to be adored for many years to come

HOW I CAN HELP

As a soon to be married couple, how many times have you been told to savour the time with your beloved on the wedding day? To “be in the moment”, in each other’s presence, just the two of you?

Part of my job as your wedding photographer is to literally whisk you away from the festivities & allow you that time to actually do just that, letting you relish in that newlywed, loved up glow. In addition, I will strive to photograph those times when you think no one is watching, those stolen moments, that I will then gift back to you as a precious memory, to be cherished over & over again

My elegant yet authentic style of story telling will keep an observant eye on the goings on without being overbearing, so you’ll know you’ll get a great mix of candid & posed images, all with an artistic touch that will make for enjoyable viewing & reminiscing

Each love story is different. So I believe that every wedding package should be customisable too! I’ve outlined my standard package offers on the next few pages, beginning with the engagement package & followed by wedding packages. I provide the different packages to suit people's preference of footage coverage, their desired printed products as well as the travel requirements for the day. If you need something that’s not offered below, get in contact with me & I will see what I can do regarding availability of services & products. Even if you'd just like footage coverage & an online gallery, all you have to do is let me know & we can work out the perfect, personalised package just for you!

Total amount of images that may vary according to footage duration chosen. Please inquire for personalised quotes & for products that are not listed below to check availability.
Please Note: packages & prices are subject to change at my discretion

ENGAGEMENTS

Engagement Session

You're engaged to the love of your life & you both have my heartfelt congratulations. Before you begin the wedding planning (& the rest of your lives together!), the first step is to share the wonderful news with your nearest & dearest. What better way than to have brand new photos of you & your fiancé?

Engagement sessions are a great opportunity for you to meet with your photographer ahead of the big day. You will get a better feel for the way they work & become more comfortable in their presence which means a feeling of familiarity on the actual wedding day - a win-win situation in my eyes!

As a stylist, I can also arrange a complimentary styling consult for outfits & accessories for your engagement session, either virtually or in person, to ensure you look & feel your absolute best

ARE YOU READY?

They say investing in your wedding photographer is one of the best things you can do. I may be slightly biased, but I tend to agree. Long after the cake has been eaten, the champagne drunk & the sparklers have fizzled out, you will be able to seek out those precious moments again through the work of your photographer. Those images are a tangible link to your wedding memories, the perfect accompaniment to your love's legacy

I hope that you will choose the right photographer for your day - one whose work you not only love, but someone who makes you feel comfortable & is an asset to your day. If that lucky vendor is me, then I am truly honoured & blessed to be a part of your special day. Are you ready to start the next chapter? Because I am here, ready to listen to your love story

Kindest,

Grace
