Hi there,

I approach weddings from a documentary and fine art perspective.

I like to shoot a balanced mix of styles that can be described as reportage, editorial, lifestyle and romantic.

It is my challenge to capture the true spirit of your wedding with minimum influence from me, working as unobtrusively as possible. I like to capture the spontaneous moments that are the foundation of any meaningful experience.

I love all the creativity and care that goes into the details of a wedding from the bride shoes to the table settings and capture all these still life details.

I work with you to achieve a photo document so you can relive your wedding day every time you look at it, from all the details, the gathering of friends and family and the love that is shared.

This is your day, and these are your photos. When you receive your photos on USB, they are yours to keep!

I would love the opportunity to meet with you before the wedding to discuss your needs and desires so that your expectations can successfully be met.

Best wishes.

Karina
