Testimonials

"If you're getting married and have big ideas for your special day, you need to hire Kodie. I've seen her work first-hand, and she's truly a visionary, bringing a level of creativity that elevates events beyond the ordinary. Her designs stand out in a way that many beautiful events simply don't. On top of her incredible talent, Kodie is kind and easy to work with, making the planning process enjoyable. Any couple would be lucky to have her craft and style their wedding day." - Content by Kris

"Kodie's communication and organisation was second to none. I was beyond happy I spent the money to have her be a part of our day. Everything went super smoothly and no detail was missed. The parts of wedding planning I was stressed about, Kodie took care of. When it came to styling she listened to what I wanted and came through with the beautiful, elegant & romantic style that I wanted to compliment the space. I can't thank Kodie at Van Dev Weddings enough for being the wing women that every bride needs to make sure their wedding is everything they have dreamt of & more. It was a day I will never forget!"

"Kodie has been nothing short of incredible and supportive during our wedding planning! We were booking from interstate and she has made all of our decisions easier with her knowledge of the Gold Coast area, the venues and what they can offer and letting us know average costs etc. We also wanted kids at our wedding (40 plus!) and she found an amazing nanny service... Kodie is a kind, polite person, she really listened to what we envisioned for our day as a couple & what was most important to us. I highly recommend Kodie!"

T & M

"Our wedding would not have been the same without Kodie. From the very start, she worked tirelessly to get up to speed on every detail of our day, always keeping us in mind and making sure our vision came to life. Kodie's kindness and ability to stay calm under pressure gave us so much peace of mind during what could have been a very stressful time. Kodie was always one step ahead, coordinating seamlessly with vendors and sourcing extra touches that made the day even more magical. Kodie's dedication, attention to detail, and genuine care for us as a couple made us feel so supported and heard. If you're looking for someone who truly goes above and beyond, we can't recommend Kodie enough!"
