

Why Australia's South Coast & Southern Highlands

With a diversity of beaches, forests, mountains, wilderness, national parks, and beautiful native flora and fauna, you cannot go wrong with choosing the south coast as your wedding destination. The southern coast has a natural beauty with its quaint villages and unspoiled environment, it makes for one peaceful yet adventurous all-season destination. You are spoiled for choice on where to get married, with the beach and mountain views both in your wedding or just one, the choice is endless. Life is lived at a much slower pace here, where local produce shines to world class wineries and the best oyster shacks going.

The southern highlands are surrounded with lush rolling hills, breathtaking waterfalls and wonderous national parks. The perfect country escape for any couple to embrace. The Highlands offer colonial architecture and untouched bushland already for you and your friends and family to have the time of their lives. It has been described as a place of class with adventurous addictions.

Wedding Planning Services

There are set packages and prices for each service. But since understanding how hard it can be to budget in a Wedding Planner, Trouvaille Weddings also offers personalised packages to suit your needs.

If what you see in the packages suits you then pick them otherwise send us a message and we are more than happy to help navigate a personalised package just for you.
