ABOUT US

Little Darling is more than just a venue – our place is a love-loaded little gem, made to celebrate your love story. We are a South Australian-owned and run small business, established in 2025.

Set in Adelaide's East End, the building was constructed in the early 1900's as part of the Adelaide Fruit & Veg Markets. We are surrounded by history, with Vardon Avenue & Ebenezer Place tucked behind us, and the East Parklands a short walk away.

Owner & Creative Lou, has a love for warm hospitality and creating unique experiences, making everyone feel at home. "It's not just my space it is yours too".

Little Darling is best suited to cocktail party or grazing board style food service. Should you choose to add a food service to your package, we will discuss seating & table options with you.

WHAT TO EXPECT

We've teamed up with local celebrants and photographers to offer three micro-style wedding packages to couples who want to get married with a small guest list but still desire the glamour of a big wedding.

Little Darling is a true micro-venue, with a capacity of 22 guests. We may be able to cater for a few more guests if you'd like to, but space is limited. We are fully licensed.

You choose the date, then we handle bookings and payments to our vendors, including the Celebrant & Photographer. Couples have the choice of using our in-house florals, furniture, and decor, which are all included in our packaging details, or, alternatively, we can decorate the venue to suit the taste of the couple (fees on application). We are the full package and will welcome your guests, coordinate your ceremony, plan and install any decor, handle and serve any beverage and food requests, and just about anything else you can think of!
