PRICING GUIDE

Valentina Perez
PHOTOGRAPHER

LET'S GET STARTED

Hi! I'm Andrew and I want to thank you for considering me to film your love story. My career in film and video production started way back in 1991 in commercial television. Over the years I've had the opportunity to work on many productions ranging from entertainment television to short films. I'm glad to have found my calling, documenting amazing couple's love stories. My aim is to tell each couple's individual love story creatively rather than producing a "one size fits all" product.

I hope this guide will help you make an informed decision on the right film maker for you.

FAQ'S

How do you tell our story?

Well....first of all, I get to know you both.

Before you make your decision to book me or not, I suggest we meet for a coffee and have a chat to see if we click.

I will ask some questions to get an idea about what it is that makes you two, you!

How do you get to know us?

If after we meet you decide that you simply must have me at your wedding, I like to plan another, more social get together.

This meeting is more like friends hanging out so I get to see the both of you not in wedding planning mode. Knowing you better will help me make decisions about the style of film you want and how much creative licence I can afford.

Dinner out or a beer on a Sunday afternoon. This tends to get the conversation flowing and also means that I'm not just a strange face hanging around on your wedding day.

Do you travel? If so, who pays for travel expenses?

I DO NOT CHARGE for any travel within 2 hours drive of the Adelaide C.B.D. If your wedding is more than 2 hours drive, interstate or overseas, please let me know and I can create a custom quote.

What is your payment policy?

A $200 booking fee will guarantee your day. The balance can be split into equal payments to fit your budget. The balance must be paid in full before the day of your wedding.

What forms of payment do you accept?

Direct bank deposit is our preferred method of payment but other forms are negotiable.

What is your turnaround time for my wedding film?

You can expect to receive your finished wedding film within 12 weeks from your wedding day but in peak periods it may take up to 16 weeks to complete.

My partner and I are a little camera shy. Will this be ok?

Of course! This is completely natural. I don't expect anyone to have had experience in being in a wedding film before. As long as you're both happy to have a laugh with each other in front of me and your photographer, you'll be fine. This is why I like to us all to hang out before your day, it helps with your nerves. Whatever you guys are feeling or need from me, I'll work with you two to have the most fun possible. Also a good thing to remember it to just have fun, relax and smile. This is your day!

The best thing for you and for your film is for you both to feel relaxed and if you're having fun, it will come across that way on camera. The best wedding videos come from the happiest couples.

READY TO SAY I DO?

SO WHAT'S NEXT?

I would love to meet with the two of you and talk about all the elements of your wedding film...that's the best way to see if I'm suited to your style and there is no obligation. My first goal is to build a relationship with you in order to better tell the story you would be entrusting to me.

It is my hope that you have found this wedding film guide helpful. I look forward to meeting you soon!

- Andrew
